

TEC CHIEF EXECUTIVE

Evolve your leadership

TEC CEO Program is designed for chief executives, presidents and leaders of larger enterprises with a vision and drive to develop sustainable businesses in our global economy.

Champion innovation and collaboration within your organization while strengthening your leadership abilities.

Harness the power of business connection

TEC Canada's proven process has helped thousands of executives and business owners make better decisions for over 35 years. We offer a peer advisory board supported by one-to-one coaching, expert speakers, fast-paced learning and global networking. It all adds up to the most comprehensive executive and leadership development program in the industry.

TEC's CEO program includes 12 sessions led by an executive coach and trained facilitator, including up to 8 half-day workshops with expert thought leaders who will target content to meet the growth needs of the members.

Monthly one-to-one confidential meetings with your TEC Chair will help you uncover and better address personal and professional issues, challenges and opportunities.

Becoming a TEC member can be transformational. Our integrated program creates a lasting impact, not just on your business, but on your life. Your ability to manage fast-paced change will accelerate. Your decision-making will become more decisive. You'll be a better leader.

Power of peer groups

Monthly confidential group meetings with business leaders from non-competing industries provide a safe and stimulating environment to fast-track personal and professional growth.

Your own personal coach

Accomplished Chairs provide one-to-one coaching that accelerates your ability to grow strategically and overcome hurdles faster.

Inspiring speakers

TEC's exclusive access to expert speakers infuse group meetings with the most current thought leadership. Get MBA-calibre knowledge that's actionable now.

A world of expertise

Our global membership expands your network to over 24,000 members worldwide. Connect with local, national and international leaders who have overcome challenges similar to yours.

“In my point of view, one of the things you learn in TEC is how some very successful people on your team act, think, how they approach problems, view their staff, finances and how they solve problems. I feel that being surrounded by peers of like-sized companies matured me as a CEO.”
